VOLUME CVI.---NO. 22. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 26, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

DON'T BE HYPNOTISED,

Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with its record of nearly 40 years, embracing hundreds of thousands of cures of woman's peculiar ailments. It's the only remedy for woman's ills sold by druggists, that is not full of "booze"—poor whisky, or bad alcohol.

A guarantee of $1000 is offered that "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drug. Keeps in any climate.

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful invigorating tonic, and imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you an alcoholic substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If out of health, write to old Dr. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice without charge.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets These sugar-coated little Pellets are the smallest, the easiest to take, and the easiest in the way they act. No griping, no violence, no disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. They are the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago. They have been much imitated but never equaled. They come in vials, always fresh and reliable: a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

COURTSHIP CURE.

Ailing persons in search of health who have not tried the courtship cure should lose no time in taking a complete course of this simple but effective tonic. It matters not whether the patient is married or single.

Many married persons whose health has deteriorated look back with longing to the sound activity of body and the brightness of spirits of their courting days. But they do not see the real reason of their deterioration in health They attribute it, perhaps, to business cares or domestic worries; pay frequently unnecessary visits to the doctor or acquire the drug habit by sampling nearly every patent medicine upon the market. A much more satisfactory and inexpensive remedy would be a daily dose of courtship carried on under strictly hygienic conditions, but without the supervision of a medical man.

Married persons who take up the courtship cure must not be content to make shift with a spurious imitation. The courtship must be done in the open air. Long walks must be taken together daily or nightly, whichever is the more convenient.

The courtship of the average unmarried couple offers, of course, a large variety of diversion. In addition to daily walks or moonlit strolls they have, as a rule, more time and opportunity for tennis, cycling, boating and other outdoor amusements than married folk.

It is to be feared, however, that thousands of young couples who derive enormous healthful advantages from their courtships do not realize to what an extent their physical well-being is dependent upon their lovemaking.

An instance of this occurred about a year ago in a New Jersey villiage. A certain young pair were separated by the girl's departure for New York. She stayed in a situation there for a few months, but was ill the whole time.

Her sweetheart, left behind in his native [illegible] suffered in health. It transpired that [illegible] kept themselves indoors a great deal during the period of [illegible]

When the young [illegible] and the courtship was resumed both quickly recovered their usual [illegible].

A man recently [illegible] the strange avowal that, though [illegible] to marry, he had indulged in no fewer than seven courtships, all of which were undertaken for the sake of his health.

He found that solitary walks were not so beneficial as walks taken in feminine society; and he did not care for tramping with men friends, as he was troubled with shortness of breath and could not comfortably keep up the usual masculine pace.

Walking alone gave him morbid fancies; but strolling quietly with an intelligent girl companion benefited him greatly. When however, girls began to find out the real motive of his attentions, they invariably dropped him, in some cases with a sarcastic injunction to get another nurse.—[Philadelphia North American.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Will you permit me on behalf of the Allison Woman's Christian Temperance Union to extend through the columns of your paper to the large number of white boys of Alexandria who are employed during the day, a cordial invitation to attend without cost a night school commencing February 7, at 7:30 p. m. All boys who have expressed a readiness to enter, and others desiring to embrace such opportunities as the union offers, are requested to leave their names and addresses at the office of Mrs. J. R. Mansfield, 517 King street.

In this connection, I wish to say that from the inception of this proposed institution, the methods of the Divine Preceptor will be observed as the standard of moral instruction; hence, the churches, regardless of denomination, are invited to aid and abet.

The selection of text-books and a proper grading of classes are necessary to further the progress of the pupils; the kindly supervision of the school board, therefore, would be appreciated.

Transgressions of citizenship frequently arise from ignorance of municipal government; the subject will be agitated; a word of encouragement and advice now and then from the City Council will be listened to with becoming attention.

Business sagacity cannot be acquired if effort be deferred until maturity. The writer speaks from a knowledge born of bitter experience. Practical methods must be practically taught to the young to secure to a community financial stability. The Business Men's League, the banks, railroads, and in fact all corporations of whatever class or character having interests in the city are cordially invited to lend a hand in making the way clear.

"Ignorance of the law is no excuse." It is well that such is the case if the best results of civil evolution are to be gained; but, if a nation or municipality so uphold, then the moral obligation rests upon every citizen to see that ignorance ceases to exist; therefore, an appeal is made to the legal fraternity for a knowledge of that law which is "beneficence acting by rule."

And if temporal power holds that ignorance is no excuse, even more em-

PROVE IT.

MISS MAY DENSMORE,
34 Delaware Place, CHICAGO, ILL.

EVERYBODY CAN HAVE NICE HAIR NOW, and you don't have to wait around weeks and months for results either. You will see improvements from the very first application.

Her Hair Takes on New Life and Grows 37 Inches Longer than it was Before.

KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO.,
Gentlemen:
My hair has grown 37 inches since I began using your Danderine, and it keeps right on growing. It seems to fairly crawl out of my scalp. It is now eight feet three inches long, which I believe beats the world's record for long hair.
Sincerely,
MAY DENSMORE.

(Miss Densmore is now the longest haired lady in the world, made so by the use of this Great Hair Growing Remedy.)

phatic is nature in her protest. Around and about ignorance of human anatomy clings the fabric of hereditary and other diseases, laying the foundation of moral depravity. Through the board of physicians we court acquaintance with physical culture and medical ethics.

Last of all, and one among the greatest, comes your valuable self, Mr. Editor. Judging from the past we have nothing to fear. The century mark of your honored paper christens it anew in the font of aggression; evolutionary in its course, another hundred years will find it not too young, nor yet too old, to be in harmony with the spirit of the times. And now, in furtherance of this plan, methinks I hear the echoing response of [illegible] co-operation are the call leaves [illegible] ships.

[illegible] information [illegible] may be obtained [illegible] addressed or called upon at [illegible] Cameron street.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 26, 1905.

Gov. LA FOLLETTE's election as U. S. Senator for Wisconsin is attracting considerable attention throughout the country on account of his well known antipathy to trusts. The Baltimore News speaking of his election says:

The election of Governor La Follette as Senator from Wisconsin may easily prove to be an event of high importance in the development of national policy. Here will be a strong voice from the straight republican side of that chamber to be raised, we may be sure, upon every available occasion in behalf of every move directed toward the curbing of the powers of monopolistic combinations, and the assertion of the predominance of governmental authority as against the pretensions of organized wealth. Governor La Follette will enter the Senate at the age of fifty, in the possession of abounding mental and physical vigor, and with a record of remarkably individual and aggressive achievement behind him. Not only has he been Governor of an important State, and a political leader of extraordinary power in that State, but he has also had experience as member of the House of Representatives for four years. A lawyer by profession, a forceful leader by virtue of native gifts and of determined purpose, an orator of distinction, he has in addition to these qualifications for making a great mark in the forum of national politics one which is even rarer and more vital—intense conviction of the rightfulness and the importance of a cause to which he is devoted. With the great questions of Federal supervision of railroad rates and of interstate corporations forging steadily to the front, there is a future for a man like La Follette such as cannot be forecast for any other member of the United States Senate.

THE U. S. SENATE a few days ago very properly took a decided stand against the excessive printing of public documents, when the resolution to print reports of one of the departments was brought up. Senator Platt of Connecticut said he was satisfied Congress is printing too many documents and that the government printing could be cut down one-third without injury to any one. He said any one who would go down and look at the vast number of documents that are accumulated and consider the enormous quantities that are being printed would come to the conclusion that the amount was in excess of what was desirable. Senator Cullom spoke in the same vein and said he thought the time to begin to cut down was right now. He thought these resolutions to print documents for the department ought to go over in order that Senators might think about the matter more fully. After further discussion the resolution to print went over. What Senator Platt said is true to the letter. Public documents not worth the paper on which they are printed are stacked in nearly every public and newspaper office in the country and more than one half of them are never taken from the wrappers in which they come.

OLD BOREAS was on the rampage yesterday and last night, and he has not blown entirely out yet. The blizzard has been most severe and it has extended over a large area. On the Atlantic coast the storm king has made himself felt, and reports from several points are to the effect that dangerous conditions have existed during the past forty-eight hours. The wind attained a velocity of about fifty miles an hour in Chesapeake Bay, and the biting cold caused great suffering to mariners. Vessels have arrived at some ports almost covered with ice. There have been some marine disasters, but the damage on land has not been extensive, although much inconvenience and in many cases suffering has resulted.

THE "news" sent from Russia concerning the troubles there is as unreliable as that sent concerning the war in the far East. On Monday the people of this country were appalled at receiving dispatches purporting to have come from St. Petersburg, stating that in the riots there Sunday from 500 to 5,000 people had been killed and about 20,000 wounded. Yesterday's "revised" dispatches stated that 96 persons had been killed and 333 wounded. This is an age of exaggeration.

NO SNOW has fallen in this city or vicinity since 7 o'clock last night, yet railroad traffic has been more tied up today than it was yesterday. This is a very serious condition of affairs and to others, than railroad men, indicates bad management on the part of train operators. The inconvenience of going to and from Washington has been very great since Tuesday night and will probably continue so for the next few days. It would certainly seem that by this time trains should be running on schedule time.

AS HERETOFORE stated, the West Virginia legislature has adopted a resolution declaring that West Virginia owes no part of the Virginia debt. It would seem that West Virginia likes to emphasize her dishonesty.

ABOUT the worst storm of the winter, amounting almost to a blizzard, came upon this section of the country unannounced by the weather bureau. The weather service needs revising.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.

According to reports received by the weather bureau here it is more than likely that the entire growing crop of oranges in northern Florida has been destroyed by the cold wave which struck that State last night, and that the trees themselves have been seriously affected, if not killed in certain localities. Official reports show minimum temperatures as follows: Jacksonville 16, Tampa 22 and Jupiter 24. Experts of the Agricultural Department say that growing oranges are killed by a temperature of 28, and the trees themselves are seriously injured by a temperature of 20. In the big Florida freeze of 1895, which practically wiped out the orange trees of the State, the mercury fell to 18 at Jacksonville. It is possible that by means of fires some of the groves were partially protected last night.

Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, called at the White House this morning to assure President Roosevelt that the republican party of his State is harmonious in spite of the senatorial deadlock at Jefferson City. "The men who are standing out against Niedringhaus," said Mr. Bartholdt, "do not represent their party. Mr. Niedringhaus is the unanimous choice of the republicans of the State and should be elected. I do not believe that there will be any compromise on the part of Mr. Niedringhaus's friends."

The postoffice appropriation bill, which will be before the House next week, will, it is understood, contain the usual item of $142,000 to the Southern Railway for fast mail service to the South. This item is fought every year. Last year it won by only six votes. All the Virginia delegation voted for the appropriation, save Messrs. Jones and Rixey.

Senator Martin, who is one of the Senate conferees on the war claims bill, which passed the Senate a few days ago, with many amendments, says he thinks the chances are good for the bill at this session. It means the payment of thousands of dollars to Southern people, whose property was damaged by United States troops after the close of the war between the States. The bill will also contain the claims of citizens in and around Manassas whose property was destroyed or damaged by soldiers during the Spanish war.

The House committee on the judiciary yesterday authorized a favorable report on the resolution introduced by Mr. Little (Ark), directing the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to investigate the iron and steel industry in the United States. It provides to what extent the United States Steel corporation and its constituent companies control the output and prices of the commodities named; also to what extent it controls the prices and output of independent companies, whether it sells its products cheaper abroad than to the domestic trade; and whether conditions in the industry result from any contract, combination or agreement in the nature of a trust or conspiracy in restraint of commerce between the States and with foreign countries.

Maj. Gen. Corbin reports by cable from Manila to the War Department that an attack of Ladrones on the village of San Francisco de Malab n, Cavite province, resulting in the killing of Contract Surgeon John A. O'Neill, of New York city. O'Neill entered the service in 1900 and had been in the Philippines continuously since that date.

The State Department today received dispatches from Consul General Gudger at Panama city reporting the outbreak of yellow fever on the cruiser Boston which arrived at the port yesterday from one of the coast ports of Panama.

The United States Senate today paid to Miss Helen Frances Warren, daughter of the Senator from Wyoming, the distinguished compliment of postponing its regular hour of meeting from 12 o'clock noon to 1 p. m., so that the members might have an opportunity of attending her wedding. The ceremony uniting her in marriage to Capt. John J. Pershing, U. S. A., the "hero of Mindanao," took place at the Church of the Epiphany in the presence of a notable audience, representing all grades of official life in Washington from the President down. It was followed by a wedding breakfast at the New Willard, where the Senator and his daughter have made their home for the past two seasons. Captain Pershing has been appointed by the President to the post of military attaehe at Tokio, to which place he will start with his wife within a few weeks. It is expected that Captain Pershing's services will be still further recognized in the near future by his appointment as brigadier general.

Expectation of a scathing arraignment by Attorney Taylor for the protestants of not merely Senator Smoot, but the entire Mormon church and its officials and their practices, filled to overflowing the room of the Senate committee on privileges and elections this morning. As usual, during this hearing women made the majority of the audience. Attorney Taylor opened for the prosecution.

The second of the card receptions during the season by President and Mrs. Roosevelt will be held at the White House tonight.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 26.

SENATE.

The Senate did not meet until after 1 o'clock today and soon thereafter took up the army appropriation bill.

HOUSE.

The House today adopted a resolution appropriating $40,000 to defray the expenses of the Swayne impeachment trial.

The agricultural appropriation bill was then considered in committee of the whole. Mr. Wadsworth of New York, chairman of the committee on agriculture, outlined the provisions of the bill which carries $6,204,710, an increase of $302,670 over the appropriation for the current year.

It contains an emergency appropriation, of 190,000 to fight the boll weevil and other insects that ravage cotton.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings of the Court of Appeals yesterday were:

Lynchburg Telephone Company vs. Booker, etc, argued and submitted.

Wright and others vs. Wright's trustees and others. Submitted on briefs.

The next cases to be called are:

Globe Furniture Company vs. The Jeresalem Baptist Church and others; McNaboe, sub-trustee, vs. Holheimer, and Southern Railway Company vs. Back's administrator, being Nos. 42, 48 and 44 on argument docket.

Eight deaths were caused by the blizzard in New York last night.

News of the Day.

The plant of the Valley Oil Mills, at Memphis, was destroyed by fire yesterday entailing a loss estimated at $150,000. The insurance is $110,000.

Capt. William Carter, aged sixty-eight, a once famous horseman, for whom the Carter Handicap at the spring meet at the Aqueduct race track was named, died with apoplexy in New York yesterday practically penniless.

At the annual dinner of the Confederate Veteran Camp, of New York, last night in the Waldorf-Astoria, Governor A. J. Montague, of Virginia, responded to the toast: "Lee as a Citizen," and A. C. Braxton, also of Virginia, spoke on "The Soldiers of the Confederacy."

The deadlock in the Delaware Senate was broken yesterday by the election of A. B. Conner, union republican, as president pro tem. The three regular republican Senators who had been holding out against Mr. Connor, voted for him at the last moment. This is regarded as a victory for Addicks.

The investigation of protests against Senator Reed Smoot so far as the introduction of testimony is concerned, was brought to a close in Washington yesterday. Chairman Burrows, after brief discussion between counsel, ruled that arguments should be begun today and limited to five hours on each side.

While the worst storm of many winters howled around them, a dozen fire companies for eight hours yesterday fought a stubborn fire in Kip's Big brewery in New York. All the men suffered intensely from long exposure to the chilling blasts and five of them were more or less seriously hurt by being caught beneath a wall of the high brick building, which toppled over. The financial loss is placed at about $150,000.

The Dowager Queen Maria Christina of Spain had a bad fall while entering the palace yesterday. Her right leg was badly hurt. It is announced that Lady Curzon, wife of the Viceroy of India, has entirely recovered, and will shortly go to India. Lady Curzon, who was formerly Miss Mary Leiter, of Chicago, was taken ill last spring when about to leave for India. For weeks her life was despaired of, but finally she had a turn for the better. Her convalescence, though slow, has since been steady.

The southern bankers, at a meeting in New Orleans yesterday, passed resolutions, expressing the belief that southern bankers were amply able and prepared to finance the holdings of the surplus of the present cotton crop, and proposing to do so under the convention's pledge of twenty-five per cent. reduction in acreage and fertilizers; declaring themselves in sympathy with the movement for a uniform warehouse system under proper legislation for the present and future crops; urging co-operation by various interests to assist the Cotton Growers' Association and providing for a committee of one from each cotton growing State.

Virginia News.

During the storm yesterday several vessels stranded in Hampton Roads.

The snow storm was general throughout the State, snow and low temperature being reported from all quarters. Railroad traffic on all the various lines has been greatly impeded.

Chief Lipscomb, of Richmond, yesterday brought Edward A. Lawson, a deserter from the United States artillery at Fort Hunt, below this city, back to his post. Lawson was arrested last week.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues met last night for the purpose of electing a captain to succeed Captain A. Tyler Brock, resigned, and Mr. Joseph Cloyd Kent was chosen unanimously and amid great enthusiasm.

Every alumnus of the University of Virginia will, within the next few days, receive an appeal from the committee of the Thomas Jefferson Endowment Fund. This appeal will be accompanied by a letter from President Roosevelt, who heartily advocates the move, and an address from the advisory committee formed of some of the most distinguished men in civil and public life.

A sensational mad dog scare is on in King George. Mad dogs and mad cats are said to be terrorizing the people in several neighborhoods of the county and these animals are roaming about to such an extent as to interfere considerably with the attendance upon some of the public schools. As far as is known the only person hurt is Minor Baker, of Edge Hill, who was several weeks ago attacked and badly bitten by a cat. He is still under treatment at a Pasteur hospital in Baltimore.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to citizens of this State of the following patents: Ernest B. Kitchen, of White Post, for a signal for free delivery mail boxes; Thomas J. Callahan, of Lynchburg, assignor of one-half to John R. Wingfield, for a switch operating device; John H. Hales, of Newport News, for an optician's frame gauge; Joseph A. Parker, of Portsmouth, two trade-marks for knitted stockings and underwear; W. A. Byrd & Son, of Glade Hill, a trade-mark for a liniment.

Slemp and Agnew.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond News-Leader writes: Nothing probably has ever pleased Colonel Slemp more, save his election to Congress, than the resignation of Park Agnew from the State chairmanship of the republican party. The allusion in the Agnew letter of resignation to the fact that prominent men in the party has asserted that his management of affairs was not aggressive enough undoubtedly had reference to remarks made by Colonel Slemp and published some time ago. It is an open secret that Colonel Slemp never did like the policies of the Agnew-Bowden faction but he was too diplomatic to allow himself to be quoted as saying such things. However, he did not hesitate to say them in private, and when these facts came to the ears of Mr. Agnew he was not in the best temper after hearing them.

Political Referee.

Col. Slemp, Congressman from the Ninth district, has been made arbiter in the distribution of federal patronage in Virginia and has selected committees of three in each Congressional district to confer with him in the distribution of such federal patronage as that district may be entitled to. Two members from this, the Eighth district, have been appointed, Messrs. M. K. Lowery, of Stafford, and E. L. Howard, of Fairfax, but the other has not yet been named.

THE STORM.

The entire country, with the possible excepition of the Pacific coast and the gulf shore, is in the frigid clasp of a mighty cold wave. It extends over the entire area between the Rockies and the Alleghanies, the mercury dropping to zero and far below in the extreme northwestern portions of the country, where such low temperatures are not unusual. There is no snow in the area between the Rockies and the Mississippi river, but in many portions of the area east of the might river congelation set in, and there is more or less snow, with unusually low and lowering temperatures.

In the region embracing the Middle Atlantic and Northern Atlantic States conditions approximating a blizzard of unusual severity prevail. This city is in the southern portion of the storm area, and is catching the severest weather of the winter. Yesterday was by far the most disagreeable day of the season, if not the coldest in the thermometric records, the mercury last night dropping to 6°. The vanguard of the storm that blew out of the west arrived Tuesday evening in the form of a light snow. The wind increased in velocity as the snow began and while but a few inches of snow covered the ground at dawn, yesterday it had been blown to a greater depth in many places. With the snow came a steady drop in temperature.

Not since the blizzard of 1888, by which all storms are estimated as great or small, has New York been so completely snowbound as it was last night. The city itself is lying under a foot of snow, that in many places has been banked by the wind to a height of several feet. Surface travel early yesterday was abandoned, overhead transit was irregular and slow and it remained for the underground roads to carry home, so far as they could reach within the city limits, the hundreds of thousands of workers from the downtown districts. The entire coast line from Hatteras north has been in the grasp of a storm. Inland from Maine throughout the New England States and Middle Atlantic States, all reports indicate a most complete winter tie-up. Everywhere railroad traffic is delayed, reports of disasters to shipping are coming in, and with the rapidly falling thermometer much suffering must ensue.

The Debt Question.

It is of interest in connection with the effort now being made by representatives of the State of Virginia to secure an adjustment with the State of West Virginia of the portion of the debt of Virginia, which it is alleged by this State is due by West Virginia, to know that the legislature of the latter State on Friday anticipated Virginia's overtures of a joint conference and adopted a resolution repudiating any responsibility for the debt of the old State. The resolution which originated in the House, has now been passed by both bodies. It declares simply and emphatically that West Virginia owes no part of the Virginia debt. A substitute resolution providing for a committee of five to secure data on the the subject and prove to the representatives of the State of Virginia that West Virginia owes no part of the debt was voted down. In this connection the the Richmond Times Dispatch says: "This premature action leaves little hope of an amicable adjustment of the matter and portends a suit by the State of Virginia holder of nearly all the deferred certificates of 1871, 1879, 1882 and 1892, against the State of West Virginia. Certificates to the aggregate amount of $12,887,730 have already been deposited with a hold committee working in co-operation with the Virginia Debt Commission, this sum representing practically the entire outstanding certificates. Armed with these and sustained by the action in the South Dakota North Carolina case there is now little doubt that the State of Virginia will enter suit against West Virginia in the United States Supreme Court for an adjustment or accounting in this debt matter."

Held up in New York.

Another hold-up occurred Tuesday night in the upper west side of New York city, and from the description given by the victim of the bandit, it is believed that he is the same man that held up Dr. Woerz, and Dr. Talbot in their home recently.

A stranger called at the Delta Phi Club, the home of several Columbia college students, Tuesday night, and asked the colored porter, James Brown, if any one was home. Brown answered in the negative, whereupon the highwayman pulled a revolver. The porter became frightened and ran up stairs followed by the bandit. En route the latter stopped in the reading room where he found J. Heighe, of Baltimore. At the point of the revolver, he demanded the student to hand over his money and watch. The student gave up his $150 watch, with what money he had and the bandit departed.

Hungarian Elections.

The parliamentary elections which will begin in Hungary today are expected to take place amid scenes of rioting and bloodshed unequaled in any previous campaign. A state of terrorism is sure to prevail throughout the country. The question of revising the rules of parliamentary procedure is the only one put before the electorate. The campaign already has cost seven lives, the latest victim being Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria's private huntsman, Michael Krapusnsk, who was shot during a fight between rival parties at Jolava. Preparatory to tomorrow's polling, special trainloads of troops have been sent to Hungary from all parts of Austria. Infantry and artillery have been sent from Vienna and cavalry from Lemburg. Altogether 10,000 extra soldiers have been distributed in the various electoral districts.

Letter to Geo. L. Simpson,

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: Would you rather have your customers speak of your shoes as wearing well, as not running down at the heel, as turning water, and taking a shine; or wag their heads and say nothing?

We'd rather have ours, at long intervals, say: "We want some more paint, and we want Dorce." We know it isn't in human nature to paint very often; we don't expect them to come very often; don't want 'em to. All we want is to paint what they have to paint whenever they paint it; the longer the time, the surer they are to come back. There's business enough in the world; there are houses enough to paint; let 'em take their time.

If we were a shoemaker, we'd make shoes to last half a life-time, and shoe the whole town.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

McCUE'S APPEAL REFUSED.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 26.—The Court of Appeals today refused for a second time to grant a rehearing in the case of J. Samuel McCue, former mayor of Charlottesville, who is to hang February 10 for the murder of his wife. The first petition of the accused was simply refused without giving any reason. His counsel then filed an amended petition, emphasizing the point that the jury was allowed to read newspapers during the trial. The court, in its decision today, rendered a lengthy opinion to the effect that none of the points raised entitled the prisoner to a new trial. The Governor will be appealed to for commutation.

Strike Movement Collapsing.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—The strike movement is collapsing. The workmen appear exhausted and disheartened by their complete lack of success. The newspapers, it is asserted, will resume publication tomorrow, while the Putiloff Iron Works, where the strike movement started, will resume operations as soon as the furnaces are repaired. There will in all probability be a general resumption of work by Monday.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—A crowd of strikers is now marching through Libau forcing the workmen to quit work. The strikers have tampered with the telegraph lines, causing interruption in the transmission of dispatches.

Reval, Jan. 26.—The strikers last night attempted to set fire to several buildings. They met the firemen while the latter were en route for the fires, and resisted their progress. The chief of police was slightly injured in a scuffle with the crowd which also tried to wreck the station and other buildings. The shops of the city today are closed, and only one newspaper appeared.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—A revolt occurred at Ekaterinburg, in the Ural mountains, today. The rebels attacked the police, killing one of the officers. Troops finally dispersed the mob. Many persons were arrested.

Moscow, Jan. 26.—The chief of police has placarded a proclamation throughout the town, threatening the most vigorous reprisals if the strikers attempt riot or prevent non strikers from continuing their work. The strikers today made a determined effort to destroy the gas works, the sole source of illumination for the city. They were in conflict with a force of Cossacks, who finally repelled them.

St. Petersburg, Jan 26.—The police, in arresting Maxim Gorki, the author, at Riga, expected to find a large strike fund on him. Gorki, however, had transferred the funds in his possession to some one else, just before he was apprehended.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—Seven students who have hitherto been leaders of the revolutionary movement at Basil Island district, have been put to death by strikers.

Moscow, Jan. 26.—In the fight yesterday evening between strikers and soldiers fourteen persons were killed. The struggle began through the attempts of strikers to assemble in the Red Square. The Cossacks attacked them with whips, and the flat of swords. Some of the strikers possessed revolvers and began firing on the troops, who thereupon replied. The strikers then retreated.

The strike has spread to the employes of the Hudner Works, the Gopon Metal Works, the Gorshanoff Brewery and the firm of Liszt and Muller.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—The plight of the strikers is rapidly growing more serious, [illegible] the failing funds. Thousands are almost on a point of starvation.

St Petersburg, Jan 26, noon.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press Association after a thorough canvass of the situation is forced to the conclusion that the worst is now over for the present at least. He says: "I am convinced the rebellion here is now completely crushed. I do not expect a further outbreak for a considerable period. I believe the discontent will smoulder."

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—A telegram from Tibau states that two bombs were exploded in the streets of that city today. A great panic ensued. The extent of the damage is not yet know.

Tula, Russia, Jan. 26.—The strike has been proclaimed here. Eight thousadd metal workers have quit word.

London, Jan. 26.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Star reports a clash between troops and enraged strikers from Kolpino, not far from St. Pesersburg. The emperor's horse guards, he says, were riding along the Nevsky Prospect toward Pesky on Wednesday night, and when two miles away met the Kolpino strikers. The extent of the clash is not given.

Talk of Impeaching the President.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.—The postponed announcement from the State Department yesterday afternoon that it was and always has been the intention of the administration to submit for the approval of the Senate the agreement between this country and Santo Domingo whereby the United States is to assume control of the finances of the West Indian republic, was made just in time to prevent very dissagreeable action in Congress. A movement was on foot looking to the introduction of a resolution in the House today to provide for the impeachment of the President on the ground that he had exceeded his constitutional authority in making such an agreement with a foreign country without first seeking the advice and consent of the Senate. Intense feeling has been aroused among Senators over the evident determination of the President to ignore them in this matter. Commander Dillingham was sent to San Domingo to negotiate the agreement without the Senate's knowledge. The substance of the agreement was officially made public and unofficially, but without meeting any denial, it was announced that it would go into effect on February 1. On this presentation republicans as well as democrats joined in the charge that the President had exceeded his authority in an unprecedented fashion. One prominent republican Senator declared in the meeting of the foreign relations committee yesterday that he was not surprised at the President's action. "It was just what we might expect, now Roosevelt is sure of his next term," he is reported to have said.

The discussion in the committee was based on the resolution offered by Senator Bacon calling upon the President for full information regarding the San Domingo agreement. It was demonstrated during the meeting that there was not a single Senator present who did not believe that the President had gone too far. The democrats insisted that the agreement would make the United States responsible before the world for the payment of San Domingo's debt, and all agreed that the protocol signed by Dillingham was in the nature of a treaty and should therefore be presented to the Senate for ratification.

Notice of the tone of the discussion in the committee and of the feeling generally among Senators was conveyed to the White House during the afternoon, and late in the day the official announcement was made that the San Domingo agreement would be sent to the Senate for consideration and ratification. Because of the feeling that has been aroused, it is believed to be very important that the agreement will be ratified this session.

Walking Delegates.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—One of the questions that the miners executive board discussed, and one that each member of the board would like to have considered is "Do walking delegates pay?" It is admitted that in the last year the miners have spent more money on their seventy to one hundred walking delegates or "district organizers," as they are called, than ever before, and yet the increased membership of the organization amounted to nothing. There were members of the board who believed that the enormous expenses incurred by maintaining so many district organizers should be dispensed with, and if necessary let each local union appoint an organizer who shall be paid by the union and who shall put in his time showing other members of the union how they can work up their local membership. There were howls in the recent convention against the great expense incurred by district organizers. It seems certain, from the subjects before the executive board, that the board intends to retrench the expenses as well as to increase the assessments an additional three-fifths.

Ladrones Captute Wife of Governor.

Manila, Jan. 26.—In a battle this morning near Silang, between a detachment of scouts and constabularly and 100 armed Ladrones, who under the leadership of the outlaw Felizardo, attacked the town of San Francisco de Malabon, in the province of Cavite, last Tuesday night, ten Ladrones have been killed and seven taken prisoners. There have been no casualties among the scouts and constabulary. Severe fighting continues. In their attack on the town Tuesday night, the Ladrones captured the wife and two children of Governor Trias. These, together with several native women prisoners, were seen with the Ladrones this morning, but an attempt to rescue them was unsuccessful.

Rioting in France.

Brest, France, Jan. 26.—Serious disorders followed a revolutionary meeting here last night. Anarchists attacked the Russian consulate wirh stones, crying, "Death to the murderer." The police charged the mob and dispersed them, but the rioters reformed, cheered anarchy and revolution and sang an international improvised anarchist hymn. The troops were called out. Order was restored this morning. A number of arrests have been made.

Ten Ladrones Killed.

Manila, Jan. 26.—Ten ladrones were killed and several others taken prisoner in a fight not far from the town of San Francisco de Malaban, in the province of Cavite today. The opposing parties were the constabulary and a force of ladrones who on Tuesday night attacked the town and took several prisoners, including the wife and two children of Governor Frias. In this morning's battle the constabulary had no casualties.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 26.—Arbitrage houses carried a speculative line over night in anticipation of the London market and have sold it all very successfully. The general market has rallied slightly but smoothly. Principal trading in Amalgamated Copper has been covering short lines put out yesterday. The bond market is steady and in better demand than supply.

The Weather.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—The Atlantic coast storm has moved more rapidly since Wednesday morning, and this morning is central south of Nova Scotia. The great wave of high pressure in the interior is slowly giving way, although the temperatures are still decidedly below the seasonal average east of the Rocy mountains. The weather will continue fair and cold tonight and Friday in the East and South, although the temperature will rise slowly Friday. Temperatures in Florida will be about the same as on Wednesday—16° at Jacksonville and 22° at Tampa.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

A big fire occurred at Stockton, N. J., above Lambertville, early today. Engines were sent from Trenton. It is said that 11 houses burned.

The vote for U. S. Senator in the Missouri legislature today was without result; Cockerell receiving 79 votes, Neidringhaus 75, Kerens 12, scattering 2.

Telegrams from all over the country today state that the storm is abating, but that cold weather continues. Railroad traffic is still seriously interrupted.

Charles Lockhart, aged 86, died this morning at Pittsburg from general debility. He was one of the wealthiest men in the United States, being worth about $55,000,000.

Fire this morning destroyed a row of ten three-story frame houses extending from No. 803 to 821 Cauldwell avenue Borough of the Bronx, New York and rendered 100 persons homeless.

Rev. Dr. George Whitfield Mead, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Newport, R. I., has sent a letter of declination to the Gunton Temple Church, Washington, D. C., who called him three weeks ago. Dr. Mead's church increased his salary and promised more generous support hereafter.

Tomorrow, Friday, Is REMNANT DAY.

The main object of our remnant sales is to keep the stocks fresh and clean. This is our thought always—winter or summer.

The incidental bargains are important to those who buy them; but the thought of the great majority is constantly on the fine, fresh stock that we show every day in the year.

But with thousands of individual sales daily there must be a constant watchfulness and clearing out of things that are not absolutely fresh, that are broken in sizes or scratched or marred or otherwise unfit for regular stock.

Every Friday we clear out these several classes of remnants by putting prices on them that will do it quickly and completely.

Prices on an average are down much lower than usual for tomorrow, and there are many attractive lots of goods included which were secured especially for this weekly sale.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In connection with the consideration of the army appropriation bill there was an animated discussion in the Senate yesterday of the assignment of Gen. Miles to service in charge of the Massachusetts State militia. The controversy was begun by Mr. Lodge, who criticised in sharp language the provisions of the army bill prohibiting the awarding of extra pay or allowances to retired officers assigned to active service when they exceed those of a major on the active list. Mr. Lodge contended that the provision was directed at Gen. Miles, and he declared it to be most unfair. Several amendments were suggested, but action was deferred till today. When the reading of the bill was concluded it was laid aside, and 200 private pension bills were passed.

The House passed the District of Columbia and the Military Academy appropriation bills. Except for a speech by Mr. Baker, of New York, in which he bitterly assailed the protective tariff policy of the republican party, the proceedings were devoid of interest. The agricultural appropriation bill was reported.

We acknowledge the receipt of a most interesting paper by Howard R. Bayne, esq., of New York, formerly of Virginia, entitled "A Rebellion in the Colony of Virginia." This sketch, which is full of incident, written in a graceful and pleasing style and showing research, was recently read before the Society of Colonial Wars, in New York city.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair, continued cold tonight; minimum temperature about 6°. Friday fair and not quite so cold; diminishing northwesterly winds.

A Wild Night.

The polar wave which settled over this section Tuesday night is still making itself felt, although its edge has been considerably blunted today, the high winds having disminished somewhat. Conditions last night were frigid, and it was generally agreed that it was one of the wildest nights ever experienced hereabouts. The snowfall which accompanied the cold wave continued yesterday until after sundown, ceasing early in the night when the stars shown brightly. The high wind, however, continued to roar dismally, and the flaws at times caused anxiety. Fortunately no fires occurred to augment the nervousness experienced by many. While no snow was falling from the clouds, that which fell during the day was sent coursing through the streets by the wind. The streets were practically deserted, only those compelled to battle with the elements leaving their homes. The mercury in the thermometer had fallen to 6° at six o'clock this morning. At three o'clock this evening the mercury stood at 20°.

The experience yesterday and last night of people who are employed in Washington will be lasting. But three electric trains succeeded in making the run between the two cities, the others proceeding as far as Arlington Junction where passengers were transferred to the Arlington branch and sent to Washington via Aqueduct bridge. At the close of the day while the blizzard was still raging in all its fury, it was determined to discontinue the running of the electric trains, and passengers for this city returned home on Washington Southern trains, the tickets of the electric road being used.

This morning most of the persons compelled to go to Washington went to the depots of the Southern and Washinton-Southern railways for the purpose of taking passage on the steam trains, it having been announced that the electric road would only run cars to Arlington Junction. The Southern passenger waiting room is small, and it was crowded almost to suffication. There was literally no standing room for another person. In the meantime the keen northwest wind rendered conditions on the platform uncomfortable, and many walked to and fro, stamping their feet to avoid freezing while anxiously waiting for the whistles of north bound trains.

A number of Alexandrians came home from Washington early last night in a large wagon belonging to an Alexandria merchant.

The river froze from shore to shore last night, bringing navigation to a complete standstill so far as sailing vessels are concerned, while few steamboats are able to forge their way through the ice.

The steamer Washington of the Norfolk line did not reach this port until about noon yesterday, she having been forced to anchor in the Kettle Bottoms by reason of the snow which rendered it impossible to see more than a few yards ahead. The steamer Washington left on her return trip last night. The steamer Norfolk, due here this morning at 6:30 o'clock did not arrive until 10:40.

The tugboat Bartholdi, which transports Alexandria workmen to and from the Washington navy yard, ran ashore on her return trip late yesterday evening but was pulled off by a passing steamer. She was nearly two hours late in arriving here.

All through north bound Southern Railway trains were delayed in their arrival here today by a collision between two trains south of Danville.

A snow blockade north of Baltimore interfered with the running of trains last night and this morning, and the mails for this city arrived hours late in consequence.

The trains on the Manassas and W. & O. tracks of the Southern road have been running today about on time.

The first train on the electric railway to leave here for Washington this morning started at 6:30. It proceeded as far as Fourteenth street in that city and then returned, reaching here about 10:30 o'clock. After that some of the trains from this city which were run irregularly went only as far as Arlington Junction where the passengers were transferred and taken to Aqueduct bridge, as was the case yesterday. This condition of affairs continued until early this evening when trains were again sent as far as Fourteenth street, Washington. A train left here at 10:55 this morning for Mount Vernon to relieve a car that had gotten off the track near that place yesterday. The car was again placed upon the rails and the train returned to this city. Since then a few trains have been run on the Mount Vernon branch.

The south bound through trains from the north which should have reached here at 10:03 last night and 8:18 this morning, over the Washington Southern road, did not reach this city until 1:45 o'clock this evening. The Southern Palm Limited on the Southern road, which should have gone through this city, south bound, last night, did not arrive here until this evening.

Death of an Old Odd Fellow.

Mr. Archibald M. Simpson, the oldest citizen of Staunton and oldest Odd Fellow in the United States, whose illness was recently mentioned in the Gazette, died in Staunton last night, aged ninety-five years. Mr. Simpson was born in Fairfax county on the 10th day of April, 1810. When quite a young man he moved to Alexandria, where he served his apprenticeship as a shoemaker. At the age of twenty-one he joined Pocahontas Lodge of Odd Fellows in this city. The lodge is now defunct, but Mr. Simpson had retained his connection with the order until the present time. He had thus been a member continuously for nearly seventy-four years, which is probably the longest service of any Odd Fellow in the United States. He was one of the charter members and assisted in the institution of Staunton Lodge, No. 45, which was organized in January, 1847. He was then a past grand. Mr. Simpson moved from Alexandria to Winchester, where he engaged in the manufacture of shoes on his own account. While in Winchester, in 1834, he married Miss Mary Barley, of Frederick county, who died in 1895, in Staunton. Mr. Simpson moved to Staunton in 1846 and opened an establishment for the manufacture of shoes, employing about thirty-five hands. He had but one child, who is now Chief of Police William M. Simpson, of Staunton, a former resident of this city, and who was a lieutenant in Company E, Seventeenth Virginia Regiment. Mr. Simpson had a brother, the late James W. Simpson, living in Alexandria, who was 93 years old when he died. His wife's mother lived to the ripe age of ninety-six. Early in life he joined the Methodist Church and had been a member ever since. In 1853 he joined the Staunton Lodge of Masons, and was the oldest member in this lodge, both as to his age and in point of service. Up to a few days ago Mr. Simpson was able to go, unassisted, to any place he wished around the city.

The Cameron Run Hunt Ball.

A great many out-of-town people and from the different hunt clubs in Virginia and the north are expected in town for the Cameron Run Hunt Ball on Friday night. Rooms have been engaged at the Hotel Rammel to accommodate some of the gentlemen, including Messrs. Chas. K. Harrison, Jervis Spencer, Spaulding Jenkins, Mr. Walters and Mr. Merryman from the Green Spring Hunt; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Labouisse, Mr. Shirley, Miss Stone and many others from the Warrenton Hunt; Messrs. T. Lee Evans and Sidney Holloway from New York. Miss Nora Herbert will have as her guests Misses Anne Thomas and Helen Baughman, two of Baltimore's beauties. Mrs. Courtland Smith will also entertain a house party. With the exception of the club members, so few subscriptions have been received from local people that the committee have decided not to depend on that to make the ball a success and will not spare any expense themselves to make every detail very elaborate. The cotillon favors will be sporting in character, consisting of fox horns, jockeys' caps, hats, whips, etc. Loose will decorate the hall and a competent caterer has been engaged to furnish the supper.

Potomac Highway Bridge.

Colonel Leach, the engineer officer in charge of the improvement of the Potomac river, has called the attention of General Mackenzie, chief of engineers, to the fact that the highway bridge across the Potomac at Washington, now in course of construction, will probably be completed by the 1st of September next, and that it will be necessary to make some provision for operating the bridge. He says that provision will be necessary for lighting the structure, for the appointment of at least two men to operate the draw, for watchmen, etc. He estimates the necessary operating expenses at $10,000 per annum. When the new highway bridge is completed the old Long bridge will be abandoned, and the trolley lines now using the latter bridge will be transferred to the new bridge. When that is done the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will be required to remove the old Long bridge, in accordance with the terms of the act under which the new railroad bridge and the highway bridge were constructed.

The Electric Road.

When Maj. Myers of the R., F. & P. Railroad was before a citizens' committee in this city on Monday relative to better railroad facilities between this city and Washington, he said he would take the opportunity to correct the impression of the existence of some subsidiary relation between his company and the electric line. The impression has prevailed in this city for some years past that a controling interest in the electric line was held by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, but now even this is denied, and there are rumors that the W., A. & Mt. V. road is to be reorganized and that the interest, whatever it may be, held in this road by the Pennsylvania company will be disposed of by the latter company and that when the reorganization is effected the electric road will be a free and independent line. That something is "in the wind" is shown from the statement that some of the stockholders in the electric line have been "approached" concerning the sale of their stock.

Complaints from Bakers.

It was stated yesterday that the city bakers had become exasperated over the incessant robbery of their boxes during the early morning hours. Another receptacle was robbed this morning. Some talk about going out of business, while others are considering the advisability of discontinuing the delivery of bread and compelling storekeepers to come to them for their supplies. This latter course would cause inconvenience to both grocers and consumers. It is said that an early meeting of the Police Commissoners is to be held at which measures will be instituted looking to the protection of the bakers, who suggest that the police should occasionally, at least, capture some of the perpetrators of these annoyances.

Reported Railroad Transfer.

A dispatch from Winchester says:

It is reported here that negotiations are being conducted between the Baltimore and Ohio Railway and the Southern Railway for the transfer to the former by the latter of the fifty mile strip of road between Strasburg and Harrisonburg, which passed into the Southern's control while the Baltimore and Ohio was in a receiver's hands. The report comes from a Baltimore official whose name was not divulged.

The Southern Railway officials in this city say they know nothing of the above, and it is hoped by the merchants of Alexandria that there is no truth in the report.

Shoe Thieves.

Early last night two strange colored men entered Mr. P. M. Bradshaw's shoe store, on the south side of King street, near Pitt. The proprietor was in the room adjoining the store, and when the darkeys entered he rose and walked toward them. In less time than it takes to tell it each negro picked up a pair of shoes and ran out with them. One of the thieves started north on Pitt street. He slipped and fell and his hat fell off. The darkey sprang up and, leaving his caputical covering, fled with his plunder. His partner ran south on Pitt street, and both escaped arrest.

Mr. Johnson to Preside.

In the Corporation Court tomorrow the case of the Romano Ooletic Stone Co. vs. J. W. Chauncey, a removal from a justice's court, will come up for trial. Judge Barley being out of the city and all parties concerned agreeing, Mr. J. M. Johnson will preside as judge.

Personal.

The Ladies' Card Club was beautifully entertained at the residence of Mrs. W. B. Smoot last night, Mrs. Smoot and Mrs. W. R. Purvis being the charming hostesses of the evening. Despite the boisterousness of the night there was a full attendence of members, while a number of others also enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses, and none regretted having braved the elements to have enjoyed such a delightful entertainment. The prizes which were really beautiful were won by Miss Potts, Miss Mionigerode, Mr. E. C. Dunn and Mr. C. R. Howard. During the evening a delicious supper was served.

Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, wife of ex-Governor Pattison, of Pennsylvania, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lavinia Russell Pattison, to Mr. J. Lawrence Perry, of this city. The wedding will take place February 7 at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. S. Bartlett, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Julia Muschette and Miss Harriet Gatewood left yesterday for Annapolis, Md., to assist at the reception given last night by Governor and Mrs. Warfield to the graduating class of midshipmen, and to attend the final ball of the U. S. Naval Academy.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Tycer left yesterday for Bridgeport, Conn., where she will represent Mount Vernon Council, Daughters of America, at the Grand Council to be held in that city.

Resignation of a Minister.

Rev. J. A. Wray, pastor of the Baptist Church, formally relinquished his charge last night. As has been stated in the Gazette, Mr. Wray returned this week from Tennessee, where he had been visiting his mother, who was seriously ill. Last night he led the prayer meeting, during which he made some practical remarks. Later he tendered his resignation as pastor of the church, and earnestly urged its acceptance, implying that such action would be conducive to the best interests of the church, which, he said, were uppermost in his heart. Mr. Wray in referring to certain gossip which has for several weeks been in circulation concerning him, said there was no foundation for it, and emphatically denied the aspersions that had been made on him. He, however, said he had no resentment to show toward any one. The resignation, in accordance with Mr. Wray's request, was accepted.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Morris Belt, arrested by Officers Roberts and Young charged with stealing two bottles of whisky from Daniel Henry, forfeited $10 collateral by failing to appear.

William and George Carter, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis as suspicious characters, were sent to jail for 90 days.

Temporary Ferry.

Mr. John B. Padgett, manager of the old ferry line which ran between this city and Washington, was in the latter city Tuesday making arrangements for the establishment of a temporary ferry line about March 4. Mr. Padgett, it is understood, has secured the use of two steamers and will run them on March 3, 4 and 5 and perhaps longer if the business will justify.

Mr. William Jenninga Bryan will deliver a lecture at the Opera House tonight under the auspices of the Seventeenth Virginia Chapter, U. D. C., for the benefit of the building fund of Lee Camp Hall. As heretofore stated his subject will be "The Value of an Ideal." The ladies having the matter in charge say the hall will be well heated and made comfortable for all who attend.

Sent On.

Oscar Jackson, alias Henry Jackson, alias Jim Jackson, a U. S. prisoner, was brought before U. S. Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett by Deputy Marshal Glover this morning for forging a postal order at Orange last year. After an examination of the case Jackson was sent on to the grand jury, being unable to give bail of $300.

Models His Coffin After Viking Boats.

Dr. Frank Cowan, who in his threescore of years has been private secretary to President Andrew Johnson, physician lawyer, poet, composer of music, lecturer and historian, is approaching his end at his country home near Greensburg, Pa.

"A scion by heredity of Scandinavia, a son of an interminable line of seadogs and old salts and barnacles in the dead and buried past," as this remarkable man styles himself, he has asked that he be buried in accordance with the custom of the old Viking kings. His coffin has been constructed under his supervision, his grave dug, his funeral arrangements made.

Propped up in bed, Dr. Cowan has written a lengthy treatise—the last to go from his pen to the printer he declares.

"My coffin," he writes, "is in reality a symbolic boat. It is modeled crudely after several of the 'clinker' built boats which have been dug from the peat bogs of northwestern Europe. And so modeled and symbolic, every part of it, from the mare's head in the prow to the red paint on every part of it and its contents, two oars and a trident of peculiar shape, is one thing to the eye and another to the understanding.

"In a word, it represents the fireship of our old sea roving forbears at the time the old and new religions were interblended more or less. It symbolizes the fire boat in which the dead body of a Bersecker or Viking was placed by his friends and attendants, fired and then set adrift with an ebbing tide in the then illimitable ocean of the west with these all-involving ideas in the act—that the dead, simulating the setting or dying sun, in a blaze of glory, might sink into the womb of ocean, the womb of the west, or the womb of the world, to be born again!"

Dr. Cowan is a son of Senator Edgar Cowan, and was born in Greensburg on December 11, 1844. He is widely known as an author.

He is best known in the scientific world on account of his article, "The Hvidsaerk Inscription at the Falls of the Potomac," which narrated that a party of Norwegians had settled at Cape Cod long before Columbus cast anchor in the West Indies.

A part of this colony made its way southward along the coast up the Chesapeake to the falls of the Potomac, where one of their number died. The place of burial was marked with a stone suitably engraved.

To substantiate his article Dr. Cowan covered a storebox with sand and traced upon it Norse hieroglyphics. A photograph of this was sent to Washington. Scientific men all over the world became interested and asked for further information, but it was not forthcoming, and the excitement gradually died out. To this day the "runic hoax" causes a laugh among scientists.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs' Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co

All who use Atomizers in treating nasal catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cts. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., N. Y.

New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900.

Messrs. ELY BROS.:—I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer, Wm. Lamberton, 1415 Delachaise St., New Orleans; he has used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results.

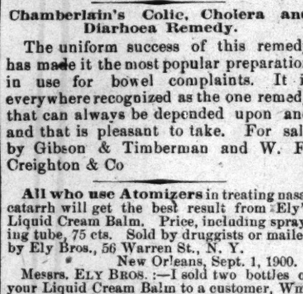
GEO. W. DUFF, Pharmacist.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.



OLD KING COAL IS HAVING A LIVELY TIME

just now, and is playing havoc all over the country, but he will settle down to business bye-and-bye. Meanwhile we are doing business at the same old stand, and are supplying the needs of the people of this city with just as good and just as clean and satisfactory coal as we have ever sold before, and if you need a new supply, just send us your order and we will deliver at once.
